BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich., Jan. 30, 2019 – Liss, Seder & Andrews, an experienced team of No-Fault attorneys specializing in representing clients who have suffered significant brain and spinal cord injuries, announced today that they have been named Best Law Firm by U.S. News and World Report and that Arthur Liss, Karen Seder and Nick Andrews have all been certified as Lawyers of Distinction. Founder Arthur Liss made the announcement.

Firms included on the 2019 Best Law Firms list are recognized for professional excellence with persistently impressive ratings from clients and peers. To be eligible for a ranking, a firm must have a lawyer listed in The Best Lawyers in America®, which recognizes the top four percent of practicing attorneys in the U.S. The U.S. News – Best Lawyers “Best Law Firms” rankings are based on a rigorous evaluation process that includes the collection of client and lawyer evaluations, peer review from leading attorneys in their field, and review of additional information provided by law firms as part of the formal submission process. Achieving a tiered ranking signals a unique combination of “quality law practice and breadth of legal expertise.”

“We are so honored that both our firm and individual attorneys have received prestigious acknowledgements by such highly respected organizations,” said Liss. “These awards set our firm apart and are reflective of the hard work, dedication, and determination that our attorneys put into their work fighting for clients’ rights every single day.”

Arthur Liss, Karen Seder, and Nick Andrews have all been certified as Lawyers of Distinction. The Lawyers of Distinction is recognized as a small and prestigious community of distinguished lawyers in the United States. Membership is limited to the top 10 percent of attorneys in the United States.
